SUSTAINABLY HANDCRAFTED IN OREGON

LARIMAR HERITAGE GLAZE LAR

High glaze movement.

High color range.

A complex layered blue-green with a high degree of color and range variation that is reminiscent of a copper patina. A vivid sky blue will occur with heavier glaze application and pooling. Brown undertones and peppering show throughout. Extreme range: order will not reflect the full range.

Smaller pieces: Expect each piece to vary greatly from light to dark.

Medium + Larger pieces: The hand applied glaze application will give you a full range of tones.

Carved pieces: Expect to see pooling in deeper areas and a lighter application on high areas. Each piece will vary greatly from field tile.

EXPECT TO SEE ANY OR ALL OF THIS RANGE

Each order is custom made and is not returnable. Expect variation from order to order.
