

Glaze & Size Variation Is the Signature of Handmade Tile

Handmade ceramic tile bears the marks of the human hand—subtle shifts in color, texture, glaze, and size no machine can replicate. These variations are the essence that makes each piece alive, creating a surface full of dynamic character.

HARBOR GLOSS GLAZE

A glossy mid-blue glaze with fine, natural speckling that varies from tile to tile. Tone ranges from lighter to deeper blue and may lean slightly teal depending on application and firing. Overall, a consistent, smooth surface with moderate variation that highlights its handcrafted character. Suitable for most field tiles, decos and trims.

High glaze movement | Medium color range

Smaller pieces: Expect each piece to vary greatly from light to dark.

Medium + Larger pieces: The hand applied glaze application will give you a full range of tones.

Carved pieces: Expect to see pooling in deeper areas and a lighter application on high areas.

EXPECT TO SEE ANY OR ALL OF THIS RANGE
