Glaze & Size Variation Is the Signature of Handmade Tile

Handmade ceramic tile bears the marks of the human hand—subtle shifts in color, texture, glaze, and size no machine can replicate. These variations are the essence that makes each piece alive, creating a surface full of dynamic character.

RAIN QUARTZ GLAZE

A pale glass blue with varying shades of gray-blue, gray-lavender or rose, and hints of pale green and yellow overtones. Higher relief and edging range includes a soft matte gray-gold and golden beige, along with areas of pooled opalescent russets and purples.

High glaze movement | Moderate color range

Smaller pieces: Expect each piece to vary greatly from light to dark.

Medium + Larger pieces: The hand applied glaze application will give you a full range of tones.

Carved pieces: Expect to see pooling in deeper areas and a lighter application on high areas.

EXPECT TO SEE ANY OR ALL OF THIS RANGE
