Glaze & Size Variation Is the Signature of Handmade Tile

Handmade ceramic tile bears the marks of the human hand—subtle shifts in color, texture, glaze, and size no machine can replicate. These variations are the essence that makes each piece alive, creating a surface full of dynamic character.

SILHOUETTE WASH GLAZE

A cream to golden biscuit with reddish-brown antiquing and occasional hints of white. Amounts of brown vary, and may include flashes of rose with hints of purple.

High glaze movement | High color range

Smaller pieces: Expect each piece to vary greatly from light to dark.

Medium + Larger pieces: The hand applied glaze application will give you a full range of tones.

Carved pieces: Expect to see pooling in deeper areas and a lighter application on high areas.
