Glaze & Size Variation Is the Signature of Handmade Tile

Handmade ceramic tile bears the marks of the human hand—subtle shifts in color, texture, glaze, and size no machine can replicate. These variations are the essence that makes each piece alive, creating a surface full of dynamic character.

COTTON MATTE GLAZE

A zellige white ranging from cool blue and rose tones to warm white. May appear slightly tea-stained with light freckling and occasional peppering.

Moderate glaze movement | Moderate color range

Smaller pieces: Expect each piece to vary greatly from light to dark.

Medium + Larger pieces: The hand applied glaze application will give you a full range of tones.

Carved pieces: Expect to see pooling in deeper areas and a lighter application on high areas.

EXPECT TO SEE ANY OR ALL OF THIS RANGE

Natural variation in color occurs as raw materials subtly change over time
