Glaze & Size Variation Is the Signature of Handmade Tile

Handmade ceramic tile bears the marks of the human hand—subtle shifts in color, texture, glaze, and size no machine can replicate. These variations are the essence that makes each piece alive, creating a surface full of dynamic character.

GINKGO MATTE GLAZE

A bold, bright mossy yellow-green with khaki, avocado, and olive undertones. Light freckling and occasional peppering.

Minimum glaze movement | Moderate color range

Smaller pieces: Expect each piece to vary greatly from light to dark.

Medium + Larger pieces: The hand applied glaze application will give you a full range of tones.

Carved pieces: Expect to see pooling in deeper areas and a lighter application on high areas.
